Thanksgiving Basket Brigade Helps Families in Need

DAYTONA BEACH – The Volusia Thanksgiving Basket Brigade will host its annual basket distribution at 8:15 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 19, at Daytona State College, 1200 West International Speedway Blvd., Daytona Beach, in the back parking lot of the UCF building. Volunteers will be gathering to distribute more than 700 baskets filled with all of the necessary trimmings for a fabulous Thanksgiving meal, including a gift card for a turkey. Many recipients of these baskets are families of Volusia County Schools students who are in need of a “hand up” this holiday season.

The Volusia Thanksgiving Basket Brigade is built on a simple notion: one small act of generosity on the part of one caring person can transform the lives of hundreds. What began as an individual effort to feed families in need, has now grown into the Volusia Thanksgiving Basket Brigade, providing baskets of food and household items for an estimated 3,500 people annually in Volusia County.

Individuals who would like to donate a basket or funds are encouraged to contact Amy Hall or Jason Hall at the Volusia Basket Brigade event, www.volusiathanksgivingbasketbrigade.com or call 386-566-3828.
