BETHUNE COOKMAN UNIVERSITY:

Junior Internship: Practicum B – EDB 352

REQUIREMENTS OF JUNIOR INTERNSHIP:
All level two EDB 352, Teaching Methods Practicum students complete a total of 30 hours of observation and participation including small group instruction and assisting) in an enhanced teaching practicum where they demonstrate performance of:

- 12 Educators Accomplished Practices in concert with general or special methods courses.
- Teacher Candidates are expected to teach four class lessons under the supervision of the Classroom Teacher.
- The students complete their hours at a Volusia County School according to their schedule of classes at Bethune-Cookman University.
- Students will discuss and confirm the times and dates of their field experience with the Supervising Teacher.

SUPERVISING TEACHER REQUIREMENTS:

- Supervising teachers are required to have ClinEd training
- Mentor
- Sign off daily on Student Time Sheet
- Sign off on Student’s Schedule
- Sign off on Teacher’s Classroom Schedule
- Complete the Teacher Candidate Disposition Rating Form as a final evaluation
- Complete two Lesson Observation Forms
- Assist students in preparing to teach four (4) classroom lessons (2 to be evaluated by the University Supervisor and 2 to be evaluated by the supervising teacher)
- An ESOL endorsed/trained teacher is only required if a student has to complete an additional 10 hours of field experience for an ESOL class (this is reflected on the chart e-mailed to the school).

UNIVERSITY SUPPORT:
The University Supervisor supports the student during the field experience.

CLASSROOM TEACHER PRACTICUM EXPECTATIONS:

Bethune-Cookman University’s Expectations of Supervising Classroom Teacher for EDB 352 Practicum Students:

- Clinical Education Trained
- Mentor
- Sign off daily on student Time Sheet
- Sign off on Student’s Schedule
- Sign off on Teacher’s Classroom Schedule
- Complete the Teacher Candidate Disposition Rating Form as a final evaluation
- Complete two Lesson Observation Forms
- Assist students in preparing to teach four (4) classroom lessons (2 to be evaluated by the University Advisor and 2 to be evaluated by the Classroom Teacher)