5. SAC Election:

- a. We had a very successful Election window this year. We are asking for approval to welcome our newest elected members. Ms. Quigley read off the names of the newly elected members as Chantal Fieldman, Jeremy Moore, Jessica Thompson, Tricia Tudeen (former appointed member for one year, now elected member for two years) and Taylor Broderick.

Motion to Approve new members: Ms. Sokerka

Second: Mr. Ratliff and Ms. Thompson

- b. We have had a request from Mrs. Jane Routh to be deleted from the membership roster. Her children no longer attend Coronado.

Motion to Approve deleted member: Ms. Tudeen

Second: Mr. Ratliff

- c. Mrs. Sokerka will continue to be our teacher representative for the 2020-2021 school year.
- d. Ms. Kathleen McCarthy will now represent support personnel.
- e. Mrs. Bass will be co-chairing this year and will now be on the membership roster as a shared role with Ms. Quigley.

Motion to Approve teacher and support personnel representatives: Ms. Roesch

Second: Mr. Ratliff

6. District Advisory Council Update

- a. We would like to welcome back Ms. Roesch as Coronado's representative for the District Advisory Committee, also known as DAC.
- b. Schools can have up to two representatives, so if anyone is interested in sharing the representative role with Ms. Roesch, please send Ms. Quigley and Ms. Bass and e-mail and we will pass it along to our district contact who will add you to the meeting invites.
- c. As the DAC representative, you attend monthly meetings (bi-monthly if it is a split role). These are meetings where you get updates from the superintendent, hear from school board members and other district staff who will share information.

- d. If the meetings are to be held in person, they will swap one month at Mainland High School and the other month at Deltona High School.
 - e. If the meetings need to happen virtually, you will receive a teams invite to your e-mail.
- 7. Public Comment
- a. No Comments at the meeting.
 - b. An e-mail was received from Ms. Tudeen following the meeting with a request to discuss the School Improvement Plan. She would like to discuss any changes that were made in creating it since we do not have test scores from 2019-2020 to guide us.

8. Adjournment- Meeting Adjourned at 3:05 PM

Motion to Approve: Ms. Roesch

Second: Ms. Thompson
