Principal Points

Dear Roadrunner families,

We are excited to welcome you back to our spring semester at Orange City Elementary! We hope that everyone had a very relaxing and enjoyable break. We realize that it's time for all of us to refocus and get back to rigorous instruction and hard work in the classrooms. Routines become important again – bedtime routines, homework routines, morning routines, etc. Please try to adhere to consistent routines that give your child the best opportunity to be successful each day in school.

Please work with your child to help them arrive on time each day. The first bell rings at 7:50 am. Breakfast continues to be provided free to all students each morning in the cafeteria. Please arrive by 7:30 am if your child is having breakfast to ensure that he/she has plenty of time to eat.

Please check the weather each morning, and dress warm when needed. When the weather becomes too cold in the mornings, we move our students inside for warmth. Kindergarten and first grade students wait in media center. Second through fifth grade students will be directed to the cafeteria.

Testing is right around the corner. Our teachers and students will be diligently working to ensure that each child can perform to his or her best ability. If you have any concerns, please schedule a conference with your child's teacher.

Thank you for sharing your child with us. We love spending our days at Orange City Elementary! A brand new year is beginning. We hope you are ready for more great experiences and adventures! Happy New Year!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Crkvenac and Ms. Hall

Race into Reading with RACING TO READ 2014-2015!

The green flag is waving – start your engines!!

Practice your reading and then go to the races! The program is simple and fun! All you have to do is read! You will be given a bookmark with 20 racing tires leading to the finish line. Read out loud to your parent/guardian for 15 minutes and then ask them to check off one of the racing tires. Each time you read 15 minutes have them check off another racing tire. After you have completed 20 racing tires to the finish line, give the bookmark to your teacher. They will order a certificate from the Speedway that will entitle you to one of the following:

- One (1) general admission to the Sprint Unlimited on February 14, 2015 (12 & under free)
- One (1) general admission to the NextEra Energy 250 on February 20, 2015 (12 & under free)
- Two (2) 30-minute Speedway Tour admissions

THAT’S ZOOMING TERRIFIC!

Racing to Read ends Friday, January 16, 2015, so don’t get stuck in the pit stop.

Start your engines and race into reading NOW!

Dear Parents,

The month of January can be confusing for an elementary student. January is the first month of the New Year. Students hear all about the winter break, New Year's Eve and New Year's Day. There is a lot of talk about goals and resolutions and new beginnings. But January is just the halfway mark of the school year. I can't believe that half of the school year is over! So now is the time to look at where your child is performing currently, maybe ask for a parent conference to check in or check up, and make plans for the rest of the school year. Grades can be improved, attendance can be improved, and behavior can be improved. Sometimes just maintaining good progress takes revision and a new plan of action. Report cards for the second nine weeks will be coming home mid-January. Please take a close look at them: grades, behavior and attendance. Discuss them with your child in detail and have them be a part of the new plan of action.

As always, you can contact me, Mrs. Bowen, School Counselor, with any concerns at 386-575-4215 ext. 41197 or at ebowen@volusia.k12.fl.us.

SWEET DREAMS.

Most adults need 7-8 hours of sleep a day, but infants need 16 and teens still need at least 9. If you don't get enough sleep several nights in a row, you'll have a "sleep debt" and need to catch up to perform at your best.
