

TITLE I SCHOOLS: HELPING CHILDREN LEARN MORE

What Is Title I?

Title I is part of No Child Left Behind, an education law passed in 2001. Title I is the largest government program for schools.

What Does Title I Do For Schools?

Title I gives extra MONEY to schools that have a lot of low-income students. This helps make sure that ALL students get an A+ education.

Title I money helps:

- Students do better in school.
- Give more training to teachers.
- Get parents more involved.

How Do Schools Use Title I Money?

- Hire extra teachers.
- Give staff more training.
- Host more activities for parents.
- Buy more teaching materials.
- Buy more computers and software.

Title I Schools Need Your Help!

Title I schools need YOU on their team. Parents can help in many ways:

- Go to school meetings and activities.
- Talk to your child's teacher.
- Read at home with your child.
- Get other parents involved!

Where Can I Get More Information?

U.S. Department of Education:

www.ed.gov/programs/titleiparta/index.html

Florida Department of Education:

[www.fl DOE.org/bsa/title1/parta.asp](http://www.fl DOE.org/bsa/title1/parta.asp)

Florida PIRC at USF:

www.floridapirc.usf.edu