The first ten Amendments to the Constitution were passed in 1791 and are collectively known as the Bill of Rights. The ten Amendments included in the Bill of Rights allow the following rights and freedoms to all Americans.

1. The First Amendment grants freedom of speech, freedom of press, freedom of assembly, and the right to protest.
2. The Second Amendment grants the right to bear arms.
3. The Third Amendment states that soldiers cannot take over a home during war or peace without the homeowner's permission.
4. The Fourth Amendment protects Americans from unreasonable and unlawful search and seizure of property.
5. The Fifth Amendment allows all citizens due process and states that a person cannot be forced to serve as a witness against himself when accused of a crime.
6. The Sixth Amendment provides a speedy and public trial by jury for all who are accused of a crime.
7. The Seventh Amendment also allows a trial by jury to be held for certain civil disputes.
8. The Eighth Amendment prevents those accused of suffering cruel and unusual punishment.
9. The Ninth Amendment states that no one's Constitutional rights should be used to infringe upon the rights of another citizen.
10. The Tenth Amendment provides each state with powers that are not specifically assigned to the nation's government in the Constitution.

Family Fun Ideas Pandemic Style

Scavenger Hunt- Hide a list of household items. Give each child a list of items to find.

Picnic- Have children help make food and pack a picnic basket. Spread a tablecloth on the kitchen floor and pretend to be at the park. Bring cards to the picnic and play fun games like go fish, uno, etc.
