Race into Reading with RACING TO READ 2019-2020!

The green flag is waving – start your engines!!

Practice your reading and then go to the races! The program is simple and fun! All you have to do is read after school or on the weekends! You will be given a bookmark and a separate instructions sheet. Only one bookmark per student. Each time you read for the required amount of time, have your parent check off one of the racing tires. After you have completed 20 racing tires to the finish line, ask your parent to sign the bookmark, then give the bookmark to your teacher. Your teacher will turn this into the office. Your Teacher will give you a certificate of completion which you will turn in for a ticket to a Speedway event chosen from 3 offered dates

- One free general admission ticket to DAYTONA 500 Qualifying and The Clash At DAYTONA with UNOH Fanzone access, on February 9, 2020 or
